

FILING OF A WAGE GARNISHMENT (pro se)

NOTE: If you have been awarded a judgment against multiple defendants on a single case, and you intend to file a garnishment against each party, you are required to complete the steps listed below for each individual separately.

Step 1: Notice of Court Proceeding to Collect Debt (aka 15-Day Notice)

- Complete all required sections of the 2-sided form as highlighted on the sample sheet.
- Make (and keep) a copy of the completed form.
- Mail the 15-Day Notice to Defendant's last known address by Certified Mail or Regular Mail w/receipt.

Do not mail Section "A" of the wage garnishment at this time.

Keep a copy of the completed 15-day notice and proof of mailing (any receipts you receive from the post office at the time of mailing). You are required to supply the Court with these copies when filing the wage garnishment form.

NOTE: The Notice of Court Proceeding to Collect Debt is valid for a period of 45 calendar days from the date of mailing. After the 15-day time period has elapsed you may file the garnishment with the Court. If you do not proceed with the garnishment filing within 30 days after the 15-day period has passed, you will be required to start the process over with the mailing of another notice.

Step 2: Filing of the wage garnishment with the Court.

- Complete, to the best of your knowledge, all required fields of the "Section A" form as highlighted on the sample sheet.
  - You must provide the complete name and mailing address of the employer.
  - If you will be filing in person, leave the Affiant's Signature line blank and your signature will be witnessed by a Court Clerk. If you are submitting your filing by mail, or having someone deliver it to the court on your behalf, your signature must be notarized.
- Deliver the following to the Clerk of Court office in person or by mail:
  - A copy of the completed 15-day notice with proof of mailing.
  - Completed "Section A" of the wage garnishment
  - Filing fees
    - Garnishment on a Small Claims case = $60.00 / on a Civil Complaint = $130.00
    - Add an additional $10.00 per filing if service upon employer by Certified Mail is requested.
      - *Note: The U.S. Postal Service (as the Employer) requires all garnishments to be served by Certified Mail.
    - Filing fees paid can be included on the Court Costs line of the "Section A" form.
    - Fees must be paid in full at the time of filing; we accept cash, check, money order, or Visa/MC.

We will make every effort to assist you; however the clerks in our office are not attorneys and can not offer legal advice. The garnishment clerks can not help you verify employer information or calculate any amounts due & owing.

We offer no guarantee of success in collecting thru garnishment proceedings. Any funds remitted will be processed and disbursed as quickly as possible; usually 4-6 weeks from the time an employer response is received.
